Venice, July 11. N. S.

YEsterday a Frenchman called Arrus, a Domeſtick of the Grand Prior Vendoſme, murthered a young Woman of the ſame Nation, and that lived in the ſame Family, by giving her ſeven Stabs with a Penknife. This Fact was committed at Noon-Day in a Publick-Houſe in the middle of the City, and in the preſence of many Spectators, yet the Murtherer made his Eſcape before the Officers of Juſtice came to Apprehend him. The Senate hath lately publiſhed an Edict for the Eſtabliſhment of a new Capitation, as well in this City as on the Terra-firma. We hear from Naples, that Don Antonio Galluzzo, Secretary of War to the Marquis de los Balbaſos, Viceroy of Sicily, was fled from Meſſina with a great Sum of Mony belonging to the Military Caſh, which he gave out he would carry to Barcelona, and take the Advantage of four Neapolitan Men of War that lay ready in the Bay of Naples to ſail for Spain, for the Tranſportation of it. They write from Rome, that the Pope had in ſome meaſure recovered his Strength, but was not able to aſſiſt at the publick Functions of the Feſtival of St. Peter. It is ſaid, that the Court of Rome will not name a Nuntio to this State, nor our Senate an Ambaſſador to that See, until the Marquis de Prie ſhall have appeared in the Pope's Chapel in his publick Character, and have decided the Diſpute with the Conſtable Colonna, concerning the Ceremonial.

Vienna, July 12. N. S. The Envoy of Muſcovy reſiding here is gone to Carlsbadt, to wait upon the Prince of Muſcovy, and to attend other Affairs which require his Preſence in that City. This Court hath been ſome time alarmed at the Preparations which the Swediſh Troops in Pomerania have made for a March, but places a Confidence in the good Meaſures that have been taken at the Hague, to preſerve the Tranquility of the Empire from being moleſted by the Northern War. We have received Advice from Naples, that the two Regiments of Vaubonne and Thaun, are on their March towards Milan, and will be in Lombardy the latter end of this Month. The Differences between the Regency of Mantua and the Pruſſian Troops being adjuſted, thoſe Troops marched on the 19th of the laſt Month out of their Quarters, in order to join the Army in Piedmont. The Biſhop of the five Churches is returned hither from Milan, to Negotiate his private Affairs in theſe Parts. Letters from Bohemia adviſe, that ſeveral armed Saxons and other Germans are come into that Kingdom, in ſmall Companies, with Paſsports from Dreſden, who have diſperſed themſelves in the Northern Parts of Bohemia, and endeavour to exaſperate the People againſt the Government, by repreſenting their Exactions as very heavy, eſpecially that of the Exciſe, which is lately Eſtabliſhed in that Kingdom; which, together with the Severity of the Landlords, has made the common People very uneaſie. The Cauſe of their coming into that Kingdom not being known, they are confined, 'till ſome Judgment can be made of their Intentions from further Intelligence. Our laſt Advices from Hungary ſay, that General Heiſter was decamped from the Neighbourhood of Raab, and marched with his Army towards Upper Hungary; it was expected that he would be joined by a Body of five thouſand Men from Tranſilvania; and then that he would endeavour to engage the Malecontents to a Battel.

Berlin, July 19. N. S. Laſt Monday, after the Ceremony of the Inſtallation of Count de Hanau was ended, the King went to Keprick. His Majeſty dined the next Day with the Prince-Royal at Wuſterhanſen, where he lodged that Night, and on Wedneſday returned to one of his Palaces, called Rudow, from whence he came to Town yeſterday Morning. To Morrow he deſigns to return again into the Country; ſo that Monſieur Rantzau will not now find an Opportunity of having his Audience in Town, as he expected. During his Majeſty's abſence, the Count de Hanau viſited the Palaces of Oranjenburg and Potſdam, but having received Intelligence yeſterday by an Expreſs, that the French were reſolved to paſs the Rhine, he took his leave of this Court in order to return to Hanau with the utmoſt Expedition, that he may take all poſſible Precautions for the Security of his Country. Laſt Wedneſday his Majeſty received a Letter from the Czar, to acquaint him with the Surrender of Wyburg. The Courier that brought this Letter proceeded on his Journey towards Copenhagen, with Diſpatches for the King of Denmark. The Saddles and other Accoutrements that the Daniſh Envoy bought in this Kingdom for the Cavalry of that Nation, are preparing to be ſent to Copenhagen. Letters from Warſaw of the 11th Inſtant ſay, that ſeveral Detachments of Muſcovites paſſed daily through that City, on their March to reinforce the Army of his Poliſh Majeſty in Pruſſia. The Army of the Crown was encamped at Niskow, and that of Lithuania near Juledoua. The laſt Advices from Bender ſay, that the Cham of Crim Tartary had aſſembled a Body of ten thouſand Men within half a League of that Place, to ſerve the King of Sweden as a Guard in his Paſſage to his Dominions; but that his Majeſty reſolved to wait the Return of Monſieur Poniatowski, whom he had ſent to the Ottoman Port, before he would leave Bender. They add, that the Palatin of Kiow was alſo with the Cham of Tartary. The Miniſter of the Elector of Hanover reſiding here has received his Maſter's Inſtructions, to inform this Court, that the Election of Great Treaſurer of the Empire is determined in his Favour, and to thank his Pruſſian Majeſty for his Vote and good Offices in that Affair. Our laſt Advices from the Camp before Riga import, that the Muſcovites having prevented the Swediſh Veſſels from approaching the Town on the Dwina, that the Garriſon being diſtreſſed for want of Proviſions, weakened by Sickneſs, and deſpairing of Relief, it was believed the Governor would capitulate within few Days; that Felt-Marſhal Czeremetoff had acquainted him with the Surrender of Wyburg, repreſenting the Danger of his longer Obſtinacy, when he had no proſpect of Relief; and had aſſured him, that if he deſired to deliver up the Town upon honourable Terms, he muſt not wait the laſt Extremity; but the Governor had not returned any Anſwer to this Summons at the time of the Diſpatch of theſe Advices.

Whitehaven, July 16. Yeſterday the Speedwell's Prize, Captain Parker Commander, came into our Road with the Anne Galley, and the Humility, from Cheſter; but a Storm ariſing ſuddenly at Weſt, the two laſt were forced from their Anchors, and put on Shore in this Bay, and being laden with Coals, were both ſunk; the Anne is ſince got into the Harbour, ſome of her Cargo of Merchants Goods being damnified, but the other lies ſtill on the Sand in danger of being quite deſtroyed. Our Coal Fleet waits only a fair Wind to ſet ſail with Capt. Parker for Dublin.

Dartmouth, July 18. Yeſterday was ſent into this Road, by Her Majeſty's Ship the Colcheſter, on Suſpicion, the Maria of Bilboa, from Cadiz, laden with Wooll, Soap, and other Merchandize for Amſterdam.

Briſtol, July 18. This Day came in Her Majeſty's Ship the Bridgewater, and under her Convoy five Veſſels from Cork. At the ſame time came in the St. Cuſſé of and from Bilboa, and the Noſtra Seigniora del Roſario of and from Vigo, with Iron and Wine.
